

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Local script accepted as Fractured Atlas project

CARUSO AND THE SWORD, a feature film in development, has been accepted as a sponsored project of Fractured Atlas. CARUSO AND THE SWORD is about a teen, who improves his grades and self-esteem, when he discovers the sport of fencing. Fractured Atlas is a non-profit arts service organization headquartered in New York. CARUSO AND THE SWORD is currently the only project in Kansas under Fractured Atlas fiscal sponsorship.

CARUSO AND THE SWORD was written and is being produced by Paula Smith. The goal of the producer is to create an artistic film and to inform the public about the sport of fencing.

There are many benefits to being under Fractured Atlas fiscal sponsorship. Fractured Atlas allows projects to solicit donations. Contributions in behalf of CARUSO AND THE SWORD may be made payable to Fractured Atlas and are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law. As a sponsored project, the film production will also be able to utilize the many resources of Fractured Atlas such as health and liability insurance and discounts on products and services. For more information about CARUSO AND THE SWORD please go to: www.carusoandthesword.com.